

Trinity News for December 2, 2018

*If you haven't invited Christ Jesus to be your Lord and Savior,
I invite you to do it now.*

Father God, I believe Jesus Christ is your Son,
The Savior of the world.
I believe He died on the cross for me,
And He bore all of my sins.
He paid the price for my sins.
He took the punishment I deserved,
And is now seated at your right hand.
I need you, Jesus.
Forgive my sins, save me,
Come to live inside me.
I want to be born again.
I now confess you as my Lord and Savior.
Amen.

If we confess our sins,
He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins,
and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
1 John 1:9

6:30pm - Senior Youth

THURSDAY
7:00pm - Trustees Committee

Thank you to all of you who took a card (or more than one) to purchase gifts for children from the Samaritans "Angel Tree." Trinity participants purchased more than 115 items for the children. Gifts ranged socks and underwear to sheets, shoes, boots, winter coats and many toys of all different types -- all designed to make Christmas a little brighter for these children.

I know Christmas is not about "getting gifts" but it is a time to show God's love through our generosity and a time to share our many blessings with others. Thanks to all those who either bought gifts or gave me money and I had the fun of buying those special gifts. As you may know, we are one of many churches and/or organizations who participate in this special community project. We are so blessed to have Pat Kaider and her group organize it! Gifts now will be given to the parents for them to give to the kids Christmas morning! What a blessing!

Dear Kathy and all the women of Trinity Church, Thank you for the gorgeous prayer blanket that you sent me. The message enclosed was so uplifting.

Poinsettia order forms are out.
Order are due December 9th.
The cost is $7.
